Moira LeMay

RIDGEWOOD - Moira (Fitzpatrick) LeMay, 80, died on Nov. 22.

Born in New York City, she was raised in New York City and Long Island. She received her BS in psychology from Queens College, N.Y. and then went on to earn her PhD from Penn State. She taught at Skidmore College before moving on to teach at Montclair State University until her retirement. During her career, she received numerous fellowships from NASA, Naval Research Lab, and the U.S. Air Force for research in human factors engineering. She successfully combined her fulltime career with raising a family.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph LeMay, her children, Valerie Teal and Joseph B. LeMay, her grandchildren: R. Scott Teal, Kathleen Teal, James Joseph Teal and her siblings Eileen Grishman and Brian Fitzpatrick.

A visitation will take place on Tuesday, Nov. 25 from 2 to 4 and from 7 to 9 p.m. at the C.C. Van Emburgh Funeral Home, 306 E. Ridgewood Ave. in Ridgewood. A Mass of celebration will be held on Wednesday Nov. 26 at 11:15 a.m. at St. Luke's Roman Catholic Church in Ho-Ho-Kus. Interment to follow at the St. Luke's Cemetery.
