

GREAT GROUP RATES AT PENDRAGON SUMMER 2011

This summer, Pendragon Theatre is putting forward a season full of amazing shows for all ages, with prices to fit any budget and a generous subscription package offering attendance to the four full-length summer productions. Take the kids to see our family show, "Stuart Little", a tale of a plucky mouse trying to survive in "real people's world", brought to life by the imaginative means of 7 actors and 12 prop boxes. Then come again to laugh at the side-splitting satire "The Mystery of Irma Vep" in which 2 actors switch genders and costumes while delivering delightful mayhem; experience the thrill of our sixth-ever musical, Stephen Sondheim's dark masterpiece "Sweeney Todd, the Demon Barber of Fleet Street"; figure out who-done-it in Agatha Christie's infamous murder mystery "The Mousetrap"; and watch safely from the sidelines the betrayal, passion, and manipulation in the searing dark comedy "Les Liaisons Dangereuses".

"Stuart Little" runs the length of the summer, with $10 seating, $8 for age 15 and below, $5 for age 5 and below; "The Mystery of Irma Vep" opens June 18th and runs the length of the summer, with $20 seating, $18 for seniors (65+), $10 for age 17 and below, matinee seats $12; "Sweeney Todd" is a limited run, premiering July 13th and ending August 10th, with $25 general seating, $22 for seniors (65+), and $10 for 17 and under, matinee seats $15; "Les Liaisons Dangereuses", also a limited run, premieres July 27th and plays until the end of August, with $20 seating, $18 for seniors (65+), $10 for age 17 and below, matinee seats $12; "The Mousetrap" opens August 18th, with $20 seating, $18 for seniors (65+), $10 for age 17 and below, matinee seats $12.
